13th Annual Tournament 2009 Aggie Open Friday, October 23, 2009

Cuyamaca College's Ornamental Horticulture Department and its horticulture club, the Cuyamaca College Botanical Society (C.C.B.S.) invites you to participate in the:

2009 Aggie Open Golf Tournament Friday, October 23, 2009 Bonita Golf Club.

This event annually attracts over 130 industry professionals from the landscape, golf and related green industries participating. The 2008 tournament raised over $12,000.00 for the C.C.B.S. Scholarship Fund and the O.H. Department programs, again thanks to all the sponsors, listed on the next page, that helped us have a great year in 2008!

We hope you will be able to join others in industry, along with alumni from the department, in sponsoring part of the 2009 Aggie Open. We have made arrangements for sponsors to be able to display their equipment or products at one of the tees or near the registration/banquet area as an additional option.

We are also accepting donations for the raffle to be held at the tournament. Included is a registration form and flier in the hope that you can join us in the tournament.

Once again, thanks for your continued support and feel free to call if you have any questions.

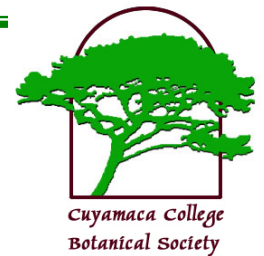

Sincerely,

Brad Monroe
